SILVER SPRING, MD, (July 24, 2022) – The National Black Nurses Association (NBNA) is pleased to announce the 2022 Daisy Award recipients. The reception to honor the awardees will be held during the 50th Annual Institute and Conference NBNA Awards Ceremony in Chicago on Saturday, July 30, 2022, starting at 1:30 P.M. CST.

The theme of this year’s conference is “Bridging the Gap of Social Injustice and Health Disparities through Excellence in Nursing, Practice, Education, and Research.”

Expecting more than 800 nurses and nursing students to attend, more information about the conference and a detailed agenda is located at https://www.nbna.org/conf.

“The DAISY Award for Nurses Advancing Health Equity was created to honor nurses whose work advances health equity, mitigate health disparities, and addresses social determinants of health,” stated Dr. Martha A. Dawson, NBNA President. “Congratulations to the awardees who were selected based on their significant impact to patient care and/or the nursing profession, went above and beyond the call of duty, and has shown commitment to the communities they serve in a way that is significantly above the norm.”

The DAISY Foundation is a non-profit organization, established in memory of J. Patrick Barnes, by members of his family. At the age of 33, he died of complications from Idiopathic Thrombocytopenic Purpura (ITP). Diseases Attacking the Immune System is what “Daisy” stands for.
