

Dr. Leonora Muhammad, DNP, BSN, APRN, AGPCNP-BC, CCHP

Dr. Leonora Muhammad, the 4th Chapter President of the BNA of Greater St. Louis, Doctor of Nursing Practice, Nurse Practitioner, Nurse Motivator, Mentor, International Speaker, Healthcare Consultant, Owner of Optics by Nony B Photography and Best-Selling Author of Fearless Visionaries Tear the Veil.

She has been a nurse for over 18 years and works in the specialized field of corrections.

Dr. Muhammad is currently serving as Associate Vice President of Patient Care Services for Corizon Health making sure patients across her organization receive safe and efficient evidenced based care.

She is an adjunct clinical professor for the University of Missouri- St. Louis, instructing in the traditional BSN program. She is also a published author and sits on the CCHP Board of Trustees for NCCHC and Board of Directors for the National Black Nurses Association. She is the recipient of numerous awards such as the NBNA Under 40 Award and Administrative Nurse of the Year Awards as well as the University of Missouri-St. Louis Alumni Award.

Dr. Muhammad was named a finalist of the Excellence in Nursing Award by St. Louis Magazine and in 2019 was the 2nd receipt of the Young Professional Award awarded by National Commission on Correctional Healthcare and the Inspirational Award of Distinction by the BNA of Greater St. Louis.