Dr. Shirley Evers-Manly
National Black Nurses Association
Board Member at Large!

Why vote for me?

I am creative, intelligent, diligent and have an excellent academic record as well as and professional experience. I have served on several Community and Professional Boards. With this solid foundation beneath me, and my goal to further my commitment to a national organization, I look forward to

My commitment to the philosophy of NBNA are as follows:

Teamwork: I am a team player and I love to work with others. The advantage of working in a team – is the fact we can do more together than and or collective wisdom is better than being a one woman/man show. More important, the advantage of accessing more ideas, working in harmony and helping each other for achieving mutual goals.

Helping/Serving: NBNA's goal of helping others is also in my fabric and DNA. The power in serving others, helping people, serving our members and the communities is very rewarding.

Motivation: I am committed, dedicated and loyal to the current and past work, leadership and the goals and objectives of the NBNA.
