The candidate must be a NBNA member for at least two years; must have completed at least one full semester/quarter in a graduate program; and, must have at least one full semester/quarter to go to complete the program of study.

Social Justice is not charity. Social justice is a virtue in which there is an organized, collaborative and interprofessional relationship among professionals that facilitates access to that which is good for all of society. It embodies all those factors which influence social determinants of health for all members of society.

When referencing to nursing...the profession of nursing and those entrusted as professional nurses...have a responsibility to continually work with others so that healthcare access and positive health outcomes are achieved for all of society. An evidence based strategy is to include service learning as a means of introducing components of social justice through student engagement in services projects.

This is an endowed scholarship.

AYA HEALTHCARE NURSES OF TOMORROW SCHOLARSHIP - $10,000 (5 $2,000 Scholarships)

Aya Healthcare is sponsoring 5 scholarships for nursing students pursuing a BSN degree or higher. Recipients will be chosen based on both financial need and academic achievement.

We believe in directing our resources to key areas to drive meaningful change, which is why these 5 scholarships will go to students who intend to work in stepdown/PCU, cath lab or CVICU. These specialties are in chronic need of RNs to meet the demand for their services. Building a pipeline of nurses working in these specialties could improve patient care nationwide.

We do our utmost to create exceptional experiences for our clinicians, clients, corporate employees and the communities we serve. We take the initiative and solve problems. And we believe education and equity are basic human rights. Through initiatives like the Aya Healthcare Scholarship, we're committed to expanding access to these necessities. Here's to building a workplace — and a world — with equal educational access for all.
